

PATRIARCHE

BEAUNE-FRANCE
1780

Chardonnay

Vin de France

-  France - Pays d'Oc (Gard, Aude and Hérault) and Charentes (South South West Cognac appellation)
-  Makeup : 90% Chardonnay. From Pays d'Oc, harvested on shaly soils, terraced vineyards and pebbly or limestone soils. These grapes provide the richness and power typical of these wines. The remaining 10% consists of Chardonnay grapes from petite Champagne vintages growing on clay and limestone soils. These grapes give the wine its steeliness and freshness. Exclusively matured in stainless steel tanks to express all the freshness and character of the fruit.
-  Limpid and frank brilliant yellow colour
-  Floral aromas, hints of citrus and exotic fruits, underlined with vanilla notes.
-  Powerful, ample, harmonious and let discover a fruity and fresh aroma typical of this varietal.
-  10°/12°
-  Enjoy on its own as an apéritif, with prawns or any grilled fish dish
-  Bottle size : 750 ml / 250 ml

PATRIARCHE
BEAUNE-FRANCE
1780